

STEP THREE: As you research this career on the web make sure to write down all electronic sources you use. Make sure that you have written down the web address just in case you need to go back to the site.

STEP FOUR: Introduction

The introduction is made up of 3 or 4 general statements and a specific thesis. All paragraphs should support the specific thesis statement!

This paragraph should have specific information about your career. What will you add that will catch the reader's attention?

A Hook or Grabber

Sentence: _____

Thesis

statement: _____